Project Scholar and Part-Time Project Assistant Payments

The project scholars who will be working within the scope of the BAP project should be graduate students with thesis and PhD students and part-time project assistants who will be working within the scope of the BAP project should be associate degree, undergraduate and non-thesis graduate students of Yasar University. Special student status is not accepted. If students graduate and/or are ex-matriculated from our university, are transferred to special student status, do not renew and/or freeze their registration, "project scholarship / part-time project assistant" status is terminated and they cannot be paid any longer. Likewise, in addition to the changes in student status, no payment can be made due to the termination of the "scholarship" status of project scholars who no longer carry the "scholarship" requirements under the Research, Development, Implementation, Service and Consultancy Projects Regulation of our University.

According to the payment classes, the monthly payment limits for project scholar and part time project assistants are stated in TL at the tables below. The payment limits are gross amounts and the tax and insurance fees will be deducted from these amounts.
